

LGCU WELCOME WORKSHOP
Location: Woodsworth 119
Friday, October 2nd
11:30 – 12:00	Snack
12:00 – 1:00	Sociolinguistics Session Chair: Cathleen Waters
12:00 – 12:20	Derek Denis Eh and stuff: Discourse markers in Canadian English
12:20 – 12:40	Dylan Uscher From super hottcore to simply amazing: a longitudinal study of a blogger's intensifier use.
12:40 – 1:00	LeAnn Brown "Not just super gay men": Transwomen, stereotypes, and the Canadian English intensifier system.
1:00 – 2:00	Lunch break – in the department
2:00 – 3:20	Syntax Session Chair: Sarah Clarke
2:00 – 2:20	Alex Motut Against Move over Merge (and Merge over Move)
2:20 – 2:40	Will Oxford Tensed Pronouns in an Algonquian language
2:40 – 3:00	Julie Goncharov Ellipsis in comparatives
3:00 – 3:20	Richard Compton and Christine Pittman Pi- as a syntactic pro-form in Inuit
3:20 – 3:40	Snack Break
3:40 – 5:00	Phonetics/Phonology Session Chair: Liisa Duncan
3:40 – 4:00	James Smith Acoustic properties of English [l] and [ɭ] produced by native Chinese speakers
4:00 – 4:20	Mercedeh Mohaghegh Similarity of Sounds: a theoretical and experimental approach
4:20 – 4:40	Sophia Kanibolotskaia Neutralization or partial contrast preservation?— What aerodynamic technique can contribute to phonetic study of word-final devoicing

Please remember to RSVP to welcome.workshop@gmail.com by Wednesday in order to allow us to order the correct amount of food. -LGCU Welcome Workshop committee